The One-Liner

A proper baby Pomerol.

Tasting Note

The style, rather like Château Dallau, is voluptuous yet poised and well-balanced with plump, dark cherry fruit and supple tannins.

Producer Details

Boutinot have formed a partnership with leading Bordeaux company Ginestet to offer high quality wines from a selection of Châteaux in the key appellations as well as consistent, benchmark Bordeaux wines under the Classique label.

In The Winery

The blend is 80% Merlot 20% Cabernet Franc grown on chalky clay soil, average age of the vines is 30 years. The grapes are macerated at low temperature before the fermentation proper. The wine is aged in mix of vat and barrel for at least a year before being fined with egg white.
