The One-Liner

Tenute Toscane's Torre Terza estate produces limited quantity, but good quality wines - this Vernaccia is no exception.

Tasting Note

A dry, savoury white with apple and citrus aromas and a gently nutty, almond character. It has full, broad flavours typical of Vernaccia on the mid palate, leading to a dry, slightly spicy finish.

Producer Details

The Baroncini family have over five centuries of wine-making history. Today, overseen by Bruna Baroncini, the company produces authentic classics from Tuscany, including the Podere Torre Terza estate in San Gimignano. They also source the Il Faggeto wines from Montepulciano.

In The Vineyard

The vines are grown on tuff, and are guyot and double spurpruned cordon trained. The vines are aged between 10 and 40 years old.

In The Winery

The grapes are carefully selected, soft pressed, and undergo controlled fermentation with selected yeasts.

Food Recommendations

Vernaccia can be enjoyed as an aperitif, alongside fish dishes, or with white meats, such as grilled chicken salads.
